

Declaration by the manufacturer GADSL

As from today's perspective and considering the given information of our raw material suppliers, substances stated in GADSL (Global Automotive Declarable Substance List) are not to be expected in the following products:

- Murdotec® 1000 natural
- Murdotec® 1000 green
- Murdotec® 1000 black AST

Substances, that can be transmitted via carryover and be found in the smallest quantities through refined analysis methods, are not covered by these statements.

Furthermore, we point out that analytical reviews of possible contaminations of our products are not part of our exit control at the dispatch department.
